Dear Colleagues,

The IFCC Task Force on Global eLearning/eAcademy (TF-GEL) is pleased to announce a call for nomination for one Webinar Coordinator for the following region:

- Asia Pacific

Coordinator Role

The Coordinator will:

- Use their technical and scientific expertise to support the Taskforce in creating live or recorded webinars
- Contact speakers, assisting them in webinar development
- Support the development of a maximum of 2 webinars per month (subject to webinar demand and regional area)
- Receive an honorarium of 200 Euros per webinar, upon completion and online publication

For further information please find attached the "IFCC LIVE Webinar Guidelines for Coordinators"

Distance-learning and eLearning are key priorities for IFCC to develop and provide both live and recorded webinars presented by experts around the world. This initiative allows IFCC to support national societies and their members globally and aligns with our strategic goal to be the largest provider of free eLearning programs in laboratory medicine.

If you are interested in serving as a Webinar Coordinator for the above regions, please submit your nomination, including a brief CV and statement of interest, to Smeralda Skenderaj at the IFCC office (smeralda.skenderaj@ifcc.org) by 1st October, 2026.
